Keith,

A couple of updates:

1. I've attached a PDF version of the report in case that is more convenient.
2. I just received a phone call from Eric Culls, literally right after I sent you the minority report. He confirmed to me that he and other state officials intend to visit a number of sites of concern in Chatham County, including the Homestead, on January 5th. He also confirmed that he had discussed this with Alison Weakley, as she indicated in her report. He had tried to look at the Homestead site on the 29th of November, but there was no vehicle access, and it was so muddy that he could not continue on foot. He agreed with me that, as understaffed as DWQ is, they would not be coming to Chatham if they did not have reason to believe that there are legitimate concerns.

I have copied the Commissioners on this e-mail, but please also include it in their official package.

Thanks,

Chris
