

Map provided at public hearing shows cross area as the approximate location of the proposed cell tower. However, the proposed location submitted on the RF maps shows the approximate location to be more northwest, on the south side of the northern section of Big Woods Road. That takes the proposed tower out of the ½ mile area search ring for the Natural Wildlife Protection areas