STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

F-L Legacy Owner, LLC is applying to Chatham County for modification of a conditional use permit in an R-1 zoning district for a Planned Unit Development off Big Woods Road in northeastern Chatham County. The PUD was originally approved in March of 2004. A modification was approved in the Fall of 2005 relocating the main amenity to some newly acquired property.

The Legacy as currently approved encompasses 463 residential lots with amenities and on +/- 627.6 acres. Since the prior PUD modification, F-L Legacy has acquired the undeveloped portion of the property. The new owner seeks to relocate the main amenity to a more prominent location within the community off the existing rotary. In addition we propose relocating +/- 23 lots from a portion of the project on the south side of Parkers Creek to back within the main community.

The revisions proposed provide several benefits to the overall project:

1. The overall project road length is reduced from +/- 44,300 LF to +/- 42,200 LF; resulting in a reduction of +/- 2100 LF of roadway.
2. Future Roadway crossings of intermittent channels in Phase 7 have been eliminated due to the lot reduction in the project area south of Parkers Creek.
3. The main amenity is now located in a focal point within the community and still adjacent to the Par 3 golf practice course.

With no change in the overall project density and planned reduction in roadway and infrastructure, there are no impacts to adjoining properties or net increase in development activity within the project.

General Application Requirements (from Submission Materials Checklist)

1. Location: See boundary drawing and proposed sketch plan.
 - a. Public highways serving site. Unchanged (Big Woods Road; SR 1716.)
 - b. Private roads serving site. Unchanged except as shown on proposed sketch plan. The internal private roads of The Legacy at Jordan Lake connect to the public right-of-way of Big Woods Road.
 - c. Current Zoning. Unchanged—R-1 with a conditional use permit for a planned residential development/planned unit development.
 - d. Watershed designation and impervious surface % allowed. Unchanged.
 - e. Major Wildlife Areas. Unchanged.
 - f. Size of Site. Unchanged-- +/- 627.6 acres.
 - g. Current utility or other easements assigned to the site. Unchanged.
 - h. Current Use of Site. Unchanged—planned residential development/planned unit development.
 - i. Description of current contents of site. Unchanged as to undeveloped portion.
 - j. Other Conditional Use Permits for the site. Conditional use permit for a planned residential development/planned unit development approved in 2004 and modified in 2005.

2. Description of Use. Unchanged-- planned residential development/planned unit development.

3. Start and Completion Projections. Proposed Phasing: The project has started development. The current deadline for submission of final subdivision plats is December 31, 2017. With this application, the Applicant requests that the deadline for submission of final plats for all remaining phases and residential lots be set as December 31, 2020.

4. Reference to Existing County Plans. Unchanged.

SITE PLAN REQUIREMENTS

The currently approved site plan for The Legacy at Jordan Lake (formerly known as, “The Homestead at Jordan Lake”) is incorporated herein by this reference and is unchanged except as shown on the proposed sketch plan submitted with this application. As required by the Chatham County Zoning Ordinance in effect prior to December 2, 2008, the proposed site plan/sketch plan, as supplemented by the information in this application, is in the form required for a subdivision sketch plan pursuant to Section 5.1 of the Chatham County Subdivision Regulations in effect prior to December 2, 2008.

The only changes proposed to the site plan/sketch plan are to relocate the primary amenity area to a more central location in the community and to relocate some lots and reconfigure some road rights of way. The effect of these changes is to create a more compact community, to reduce the total projected length of roadways and to eliminate two stream crossings. This application does not propose to add any land to the PUD or to change the number of residential units permitted in the PUD.

As lots are platted in the PUD, they are subjected to the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions for The Legacy at Jordan Lake, recorded in Book 1252, Page 524, Chatham County Registry, as amended. The undeveloped portion of the PUD is not yet subject to restrictive covenants.

The amenity area that is proposed to be relocated by this application is intended to be used for the common use and enjoyment of the owners of residential lots within The Legacy at Jordan Lake, and specific uses may include, without limitation, clubhouses or gathering spaces, swimming pools, play areas, athletic fields, open spaces, tennis courts and parking areas and other accessory uses.

Proposed Phasing: The current deadline for submission of final subdivision plats is December 31, 2017. With this application, the Applicant requests that the deadline for submission of final plats for all remaining phases and residential lots in the PUD be set as December 31, 2020.

Specific Conditional Use Permit Application Requirements (Five Findings)

All information and evidence submitted in support of the five findings required for the issuance of the conditional use permit for The Legacy at Jordan Lake (formerly known as, “The Homestead at Jordan Lake”) in 2004 and the modification of the conditional use permit in 2005 is incorporated herein by this reference. The only changes proposed to the conditional use permit by this application are to relocate the primary amenity area to a more central location in the community and to relocate some lots and reconfigure some road rights of way. The effect of these changes is to create a more compact community, to reduce the total projected length of roadways and to eliminate two stream crossings. This application does not propose to add any land to the PUD or to change the number of residential units permitted in the PUD. With no change in the overall density in the PUD and reduction in the length of roadways and associated infrastructure, the proposed modification will create a more cohesive, better-designed community for owners of property within The Legacy at Jordan Lake, will have no negative impacts to adjoining properties and will result in less impact to the environment. The Legacy at Jordan Lake, as modified by this application, will continue to meet all of the five findings.

Finding #1: The use requested is among those listed as an eligible conditional use in the district in which the subject property is located or is to be located.

Planned residential developments are listed as an eligible conditional use in the R-1 (formerly RA-40 in the Chatham County Zoning Ordinance in effect prior to December 2, 2008) zoning district.

Finding #2: The requested conditional use permit or revision to the existing permit is either essential or desirable for the public convenience or welfare.

- A. Need and Desirability: The relocation of the primary amenity area to a more central location and the relocation of some lots and reconfiguration of some road rights of way as shown on the proposed sketch plan will create a more compact, better-designed community for property owners within the PUD, will reduce the total projected length of roadways, will eliminate two stream crossings and will promote the development of homes and neighborhoods that are in demand in the market. The revision, which does not add land or increase the number of units in the PUD, will have no negative impact to adjoining property owners. The revision does not otherwise change the need and desirability analysis of the existing approved conditional use permit.
- B. Survey of Similar Uses: The revision does not change the number of approved residential units in the PUD and, therefore, does not change the impact of the PUD on similar uses, or vice versa. The Applicant believes that there is substantial demand in the market for the neighborhoods and homes it intends to develop at The Legacy at Jordan Lake.

- C. Public Provided Improvements: No additional public improvements are needed to support the requested revisions to the conditional use permit.

Finding #3: The requested permit or revision to the existing permit will not impair the integrity or character of the surrounding or adjoining districts, and will not be detrimental to the health, safety or welfare of the community.

This application does not propose to add any land to the PUD or to change the number of residential units permitted in the PUD. With no change in the overall density in the PUD and reduction in the length of roadways and associated infrastructure, the proposed revision will have no negative impacts to adjoining properties and will result in less development activity and less impact to the environment. The revision will have no adverse impact on emergency services, traffic, visual impacts and screening, lighting, noise, chemicals and biological and radioactive agents or the signage for the community. To the extent that the revision results in a more compact development of the community, it may have marginally positive impacts on several of these considerations.

Finding #4: The requested permit will be or remain consistent with the objectives of the Land Conservation and Development Plan.

As this application does not add land to the PUD or change the number of residential units permitted in the PUD, it does not change the relation of the already-approved conditional use permit to the Land Conservation and Development Plan, nor does it change watershed or flood considerations. The Legacy at Jordan Lake promotes balanced growth by providing desirable homes in an area where they are in demand. Broad wooded buffers along Big Woods Road, expansive open spaces and recreational opportunities within The Legacy and the relatively low density of the development preserve the form and function of rural character. The high quality water, wastewater and stormwater control systems that serve the community help reduce the environmental impacts of the community. .

Finding #5: Adequate utilities, access roads, storm drainage, recreation, open space, and other necessary facilities have been or are being provided consistent with the County's plans, policies and regulations.

As the requested revision does not add land to the PUD or change the number of residential units permitted in the PUD, it will cause no change in water requirements, wastewater capacity requirements, water or sewer impacts, access roads or stormwater runoff. The Legacy at Jordan Lake will continue to be served by the Chatham County water system and the regulated community wastewater system. The two approved access roads connecting to Big Woods Road are unchanged by this application.

Adjacent/Adjoining Landowners: These are those properties that share a common property line as well as those that are directly across a public or private road, easement, or waterway.
