

Negroes To Decide On Protest

DANVILLE, Va., March 6 (UPI) — Danville Negroes said tonight they may hold another protest meeting before Wednesday to decide whether to picket a department store here.

Negroes met to discuss picketing of Thalhimer's department store in Richmond and the relation to its branch store in Danville.

Pickets have maintained a constant vigil in Richmond since 34 Negro students were arrested for protesting segregated eating facilities.

W. Lester Banks of Richmond, NAACP executive secretary for Virginia, addressed the Danville meeting, but observers said no final decision was reached at the session.
