rade Ha ls Urgeo By NAAC

Williams Convicted

Meanwhile in Monroe, Robert Williams, controversial president of the Monroe Chapter of the NAACP, was convicted of trespassing today in connection with passing today in connection with a sitdown demonstration March 11 at a drug store lunch counter. He received a 30-day suspended sentence in Union County Recorder's Court, was fined $50 and

Williams served notice of an appeal to Union County Superior Court and was released under was released today and charged with trespassing at a chain variety store on Raleigh's main street.

The pair, Albert Sampson, 21,
and James E. Fox, were engaged in demonstrations against segregated lunch counter facilities.

They were released under $25
bond for trial Friday in City

Court.
Forty-three other Negro college students were standing on the month while standing on the privately owned sidewalks of a Raleigh shopping center. Two were convicted of trespass-ing last week. The others are week.

scheduled for trial next Monday.

Earlier, today a white truck driver was freed of assault charges connected with a bi-racial fracas which occurred last month on the main street.

David Price, 21, was acquitted of attacking a Shaw University student carrying picket signs in Detective Sgt. A. A. Bunn said Price was arrested Feb. 17 after a Negro was struck with a dog chain wielded by a person in a (Continued On Page 4, Col. 8)

segregated

protest

of

counters.

Detective Sgt. A.

Raleigh two Shaw University Negro students were arrested today and charged with trespass-

behavior

to refor two

under $25

court costs and ordered

on good

main years

$300 bond: At Rale

Lellan's.

for the Advancement of Colored People said the North Carolina action is in line with a letter distributed nationally by Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, last week.

Stores in Charlotte that have been picketed include Belk's and Ivey's department stores, and four variety chain outlets—Woolworth, Kress, Grant's and McLellan's.

State President Kelly Alexander of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored

(From Daily News Wire Reports)
CHARLOTTE, March 21 — The State NAACP has asked its 18,000
members to stop patronizing stores whose segregated 1 u n c h counters have been picketed by Negroes.

Trade Halt Is Urged By NAACP

(Continued From Page One)

crowd. The officer said he later learned Price was not the assailant.

Bi-Racial Committee

In Henderson, members of the Vance County Ministerial Association asked Mayor Carroll Singleton today to form a bi-racial committee to serve as "a bridge of understanding" between the races.

Singleton turned down the request after reading the petition. He said Henderson "already enjoys peaceful, harmonious relations between the races and no useful or worthwhile purpose could be served by such a committee."