ontinue

ents

rotests

Acres

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. New demonstrations were staged Wednesday by northern college students over discrimina-tion against Southern Negroes as Congress labored over legislation aimed at insuring civil rights. Seven white girls, students at Skidmore College, picketed F. W. Woolworth's store in Sarasota Springs, N.Y., protesting dis-crimination against Negroes at the company's stores in the South.

The girls were taken to police headquarters, lectured by the police chief and returned to the college college. About 300 Yale University Divinity School students formed a long line and marched to a pub-lic square in Idew Haven, Conn., carrying placards. Their signs called for support of lunch coun-ter sitdown demonstrations and for protection of the right of peaceful protest peaceful protest.

Reason Cited spokesman for the Yale stu-A denta said their demonstration was to protest Southern discrim-ingtion and also the was to protest Southern discrim-ination and also to support ef-forts toward overcoming racial problems in the New Haven area. In Clinton, N.Y., 30 Hamilton College students picketed the F. W. Woolworth store. This group included five Negroes. In the South. Negro_college group included five Negroes. In the South, Negro-college students refrained from further students refrained from further widespread demonstrations, ap-parently content for the moment after dramatizing their protests against segregated eating places. A dramatic plea for continued operation of public schools in Atlanta, Ga., was placed before a special committee of the Geor-gia Legislature. Atlanta schools are under federal court orders to desegregate, despite a state law forbidding race mixing in schools. schools.

Danger Stressed Spokesmen pleading for con-tinuing public schools even if integration is the price outnum-bered diehard segregationists 3-1. Educational leaders told the com-mittee that losing the schools would be catastrophic in the At-lanta metropolitan area of one lanta metropolitan million persons.

inition persons. In Montgomery, Aka., four Ne-groes applied for admission to the University of Alabama cen-ter, where six others sought en-rollment Tuesday. The four filled out application blanks and left. The center is a night school for part time students and is a branch of the University of Alabama which is under court orders to refrain from discrimi-nating against Negroes. The drive for civil rights legis-lation in Washington included house approval of a ban on threatening letters in connection with court orders to desegregate schools. The House bill includes a provision for referees to help Negroes fight voting discrimination.