

Black-Robed Rulers

Editor of the Daily News:

You and I know that rabble rousers from other states are behind the N.A.A.C.P. A white minister was arrested on the street in Greensboro because he was preaching God's word, yet out-of-state trouble makers come in and play havoc and are not molested in any way.

The laws of the land are not made by those black-robed rulers in Washington, and all who have studied the U. S. Constitution know it is still the original Constitution and has served its purpose until the life-term judges decreed otherwise by misinterpretation and even some of our highest officials and would-be high officials agree with the great judges.

If we elect a man to the Governor's office who is in full agreement with these tyrannical bosses in Washington, we are doomed to integration despite their promise of moderation. One day it will "bust" wide open.

The Negroes expect to gain intermarriage, office holding and all the tip-top jobs. We do not need men in office who are cowards—and are ready to bow to the commands of tyrants.

We do need men in office who are courageous, with a desire to help the people as a whole and on an equal but segregated plan—one who is willing to think of the welfare of our great state and use his office instead of globe-trotting as our Governor and our President have done at the taxpayers' expense.

So many of the high officials in Washington who favored and got integration proceeded to place their children in private schools.

They just could not have their children rubbing elbows with Negro children in schoolrooms. This fact alone should convince the Negroes that these people and those in New York are not really interested in them.

Legislation should be enacted to keep rabble rousers of any and all kinds out of the state. Only then will we be able to do our full duty toward all men.

MRS. LORA LAMONDS

Biscoe.