2. Safeguarding CLIENT Data. Client is wholly responsible for the integrity and security of its data and programs. CLIENT will perform back up of all data and programs on a schedule that CLIENT believes is adequate. NBS will provide advice to client for frequency of back up and adequacy of restore procedures.

YEAR 2000 COMPLIANCE DISCLAIMER:

The issue of year 2000 compliance is complex and involves nearly every manufacturer and provider of computer related hardware, software, systems and services. NBS recommends that CLIENT fully research the impact of year 2000 non-compliance and the problems specific to CLIENT's organization. NBS expressly disclaims any responsibility to research; notify CLIENT of potential year 2000 problems; or for non-compliance of CLIENT's hardware, software or systems and including any resulting adverse impact. CLIENT agrees that it has not relied on any representations outside this contract when deciding to enter this contract. CLIENT further agrees that this disclaimer cannot be waived, deleted, changed or made unenforceable due to any oral agreements or advice received from any NBS employee unless a written waiver is made by the President of NBS.

CLIENT acknowledges that NBS has no duty or obligation with respect to year 2000 issues and as such in the event that NBS is found liable to CLIENT for a year 2000 issue, CLIENT agrees it would be difficult to calculate and ascertain accurately and definitely the cost, damage, or injury that CLIENT would sustain on a year 2000 issue either through some act or omission by NBS. As a result, the measure of liquidated damages (not a penalty) for any such breach shall be $500. CLIENT and NBS expressly acknowledge and agree that this provision on computation of damages constitutes a reasonable and good faith effort to establish a fair and equitable method of providing CLIENT with a remedy for any such act or omission by NBS.

PERFORMANCE:

NBS will insure that its activities under this Agreement achieve and are maintained in accordance with the performance levels as are common for the computer system support industry.

TERMINATION:

In the event that NBS or CLIENT materially or repeatedly defaults in the performance of any of its duties and obligations under this Agreement, then the party not in default may terminate this Agreement as of a date specified in writing to the defaulting party. Provided, however, that in no event may either party terminate this agreement for default without first providing the defaulting party written notice of specific deficiencies in its performance and a reasonable opportunity after such notice to substantially cure such deficiencies within thirty (30) days for a default in the payment or money, or within 30 days for any other default. The parties shall agree on such longer cure periods as may be appropriate under the circumstances.

Either party may terminate this contract with 90 days written notice.

INDEMNITIES AND DAMAGES:

NBS and CLIENT will indemnify and hold harmless the other from any and all claims, actions, damages, liabilities, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and expenses for any injuries to persons or damage to property arising from acts or omissions of the indemnitor under this Agreement.

CONFIDENTIALITY:

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, NBS and CLIENT each agree that all proprietary information communicated to it by the other, whether before the Effective Date or during the term of this Agreement, shall be received in strict confidence, shall be used only for purposes of this Agreement, and that no such information shall be disclosed by the recipient party, its agents or employees without the prior written consent of the other party. Each party agrees to take all reasonable precautions to prevent the disclosure to outside parties of such information, including without limitations, the terms of this agreement except as may be necessary by reason of legal, accounting or regulatory requirements beyond the reasonable control of NBS or CLIENT, as the case may be.

CLIENT RESTRICTION ON HIRING COVENANT:

Client acknowledges the considerable cost and expense incurred by NBS for recruiting, evaluating, training and retaining its employees, the cost to NBS due to the dissemination of proprietary information by former employees, and the substantial revenue lost by NBS when Client or a Client subsidiary hires a current or recent employee of NBS. Accordingly, in consideration of the service provided by NBS, Client agrees that Client and all Client subsidiary companies will not employ, in any capacity, any employee or former employee of NBS whose separation of employment from NBS has been less than one (1) year.

Client agrees it would be difficult to calculate and ascertain accurately and definitively the cost, damage, or injury that NBS would sustain from a breach by Client or Client subsidiary company of the foregoing provision. As a result, the measure of liquidated damages (not a penalty) for any such breach shall be seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) and will be due and payable by Client to NBS at the time of the breach of this provision. Client and NBS expressly acknowledge and agree that this provision on computation of damages constitutes a reasonable and good faith effort to establish a fair and equitable method of providing NBS with a remedy for any such breach of this provision.

Client and NBS agree the above provision does not apply to any employee discharged by NBS, provided said employee was not discharged for working or consulting for a client or competing business of NBS while employed by NBS.

Client agrees that in the event of a breach of this provision by Client or Client subsidiary company, all attorneys fees incurred by NBS in the process of enforcing this provision and collecting the $75,000 liquidated damages will be fully reimbursed by Client to NBS.
